RECOMMENDATIONS

Name: Kamran Brohi | Assistance Professor

I have had the pleasure of knowing Irfan during his BS (Computer Science) studies at the Institute of Mathematics & Computer Science (IMCS), University of Sindh. He has consistently proven himself to be a hardworking, dedicated, and punctual student with a strong sense of responsibility.

Beyond his organizational skills, Irfan is also a skilled Python programmer with a genuine passion for software development. His curiosity, teamwork, and problem-solving mindset make him a promising professional who will undoubtedly excel in his career.

I wish him all the best in his future endeavors.
